

Medication Adherence Survey Provider Perspective

Purpose: To better understand the perspective of the healthcare providers and community organization employees in regards to their clients/ patients that have/ are taking prescription medication (s).

Top Factors Preventing Individuals from Taking their Medication

- ◆ Ability to pay co-pay or cost of prescription
- ◆ Transportation limitations to pick up prescription
- ◆ They do not like how the prescription makes them feel

42% Offer assistance programs to minimize or eliminate out-of-pocket prescription costs. 58% of their patients/ clients take advantage of help

90% Offer education on the importance of prescription adherence

90% Know that drug companies have programs that minimize or eliminate out-of-pocket costs for prescriptions

Opportunities for Consideration...

- ◆ Feasibility assessment for home delivery options with area pharmacies
- ◆ Increase awareness of cost mitigation (assistance) programs among Medicaid/ Uninsured individuals
- ◆ Implement prescriptions reminder applications

Response Rate: 53 panel members responded to the mid-October 2018 to January 2019 online panel survey. This panel survey only surveyed Healthcare Providers and Community Organization Employees. Over 55% of those that responded, have treated patients/ clients that have taken prescription medication (s).